

THIRD HAVEN OPEN HOUSE

for Families

Friday, Sept. 20, 2019
5:30-7:30 p.m.

Have you ever wondered if there's a place for you and your family in Quakerism?

Wonder no more. The children's education program of Third Haven Friends Meeting invites the community to an Open House to learn more about what Quakerism has to offer young families. The Open House will be on Third Haven's campus at 405 South Washington St. in downtown Easton.

Childcare and abundant playtime for children will be available during the Open House.

Look for other Third Haven children's events online at www.thirdhaven.org, including regular programs focused on mindfulness in nature, storytelling about Quakerism and social action.

The Open House will feature a presentation by Melinda Wenner Bradley, a Quaker youth engagement expert with extensive experience in children's spiritual development. Activities will include a complimentary supper, games for the whole family, a tour of Third Haven, and ample opportunity to ask questions and share experiences about raising peaceful kids in a busy, hectic world.
