Comments on Ninth Query, Equality and Justice (read at Meeting for Worship)

Even in our beautiful environment here we need to recognize what other people, like those on the West Coast with fires, are going through.

The meeting should take an inventory concerning racial and other issues in our community and what actual actions we are taking as a meeting. Perhaps a testimonies and concerns small committee might be formed.

Approval of minutes from Seventh Month business meeting-Approved

Clerk's Desk- Molly Brian

Grace Cook from Philadelphia Yearly Meeting is welcome here today with bulletins for us. PYM minutes under consideration regarding two topics have been circulated with the announcements.

1. Climate Change Summary Minute

Guided by many Friends who have worked tirelessly over the past fifty years, Philadelphia Yearly Meeting adopts a yearly meeting-wide witness on climate change. This corporate ministry is broad and encompasses the work and witness of many people, communities, monthly meetings and organizations within the wider network of Quakers in the Philadelphia region and beyond. A yearly meeting-wide witness on climate change seeks to raise up as many different voices and actions as possible to make progress on the environmental and societal issues at the heart of the climate crisis.

see circulated document

Discussion: what does this mean for us as a meeting? Could we address the fuel used by Easton Utilities rather than a grand gesture? Think globally, act locally. Consider your investments. Choose Clean Choice Energy through Delmarva Power or your power supplier. They use clean fuels. As a meeting approving the minute sets climate change as a focus and priority.

Minute Approved. Paige and Molly will work on list of Meeting activities addressing climate change to send to PYM.

1. Racism On August 2016, members of the Fellowship of Friends of African Descent, moved by the Holy Spirit, in response to the murders of Philando Castile and Anton Sterling, approved a Minute Regarding State Sanctioned Violence. Our Minute was circulated and adopted by monthly and yearly meetings throughout the United States as well as Quaker organizations such as the American Friends Service Committee. Currently at Annual Sessions Philadelphia Yearly Meeting revisited the minute: Identifying the persistent realities of systemic racism, militarism, materialism, wealth and educational inequality as major contributors to the violence that ravages our communities, the minute called for the following:
 - a. Establishment of Peace Forces
 - b. Community based police training
 - c. Opening of Peace Ce
 - d. Disarmament in the community

The discernment of these Friends can provide a meaningful starting point for meetings to consider their own work.

- What actions has your meeting been inspired to take regarding racism among us?
- What challenges arise for you as you consider racism in the United States in these days?
- How has your meeting been affected?
- What do you feel should come next in our collective work to address racism in our world today?

A future threshing session to look at racial inequities will be arranged for Third Haven.

End of year Treasurer's Report- Cynthia Quast Accepted

Treasurer's Report for fiscal year-end 2019-2020, as of 6/30/20.

In our year-end Budget versus Actual report, our member income was almost $54,500 or 103% of the budget. Our total income was almost $75,000 or 114% of the budget. Our ordinary expenses for the year were almost $64,900. This gave us a net income of just over $10,000.

On our Balance Sheet we had just over $69,000 in our local operating bank account, and over $70,600 in our operating investment account at Friends Fiduciary. On the Prior Year Comparison report our total income for the year was 23% more than last year and our ordinary expenses were 12% more than last year. Our net income was $7,000 more than last year.

See related balance sheets posted at <http://www.3rdhaven.org>

Comments: Concern was expressed that outreach and charitable contribution spending were down. Was this due to lack of activity or pandemic? Budget and Finance will discuss what to do with the surplus.

Scholarship Committee Annual Report - Marsie Hawkinson Accepted

Education of its members has been a priority of the Society of Friends since its earliest days. Friends Schools for girls as well as boys were begun in the late 17th Century and continue today. At Third Haven we seek to encourage our young members in their educational endeavors by offering scholarships to help with the cost. Though it represents a very small part of their costs, they have all expressed their appreciation at our encouragement.

This year has been full of challenges for all, but most of our students have chosen to continue their education in whatever way they can.

Laurence Claggett is living at home and taking two courses via Zoom. He expects to graduate from St. Mary's College in January. Juliette Neil is a senior at Yale University. She is living in New Haven in a pod with a group of her friends while attending classes by Zoom and working at Yale University Press. Sofie Neil a sophomore at Georgetown Univ. is taking courses by Zoom while living with her sister, Nora, in Italy, and still working for the GU magazine, The Voice. Atticus Leibman is a freshman at University of Maryland in the Robert H. Smith School of Business. He and a small group of friends will be sharing a living quarters near Campus. Maya Claggett elected to take this semester off but plans to continue at Earlham.

In January we will be checking in with our students again to see how their education plans are progressing. By next fall we will probably add two more students to our group. Max McCall and Zadoc Bond will be graduating – Max from Easton High School and Zadoc from St. Andrews.

EXPENSES FOR THE FALL TERM WERE:

Laurence Claggett – St. Mary's University – senior.....	$500.
Juliette Neil – Yale University – senior.....	$500.

Martha L. Hawkinson, clerk; Benita Cooper, treasurer; Judy Warder, assistant treasurer; Sumner Parker, Lorraine Claggett, Deb Danser, Doreen Getsinger, Paige Tilghman, Joan Wetmore Scholarships are gradually being increased each year

Planning Committee Update- Ben Tilghman

This committee has been on hiatus due to the pandemic and has now reconvened. Uncertainty and changing methods of doing business are recent considerations. Work to be done on the Old Meeting House has an effect upon planning. Global warming considerations are appropriate to planning. Meetings are open to all interested people and will be publicized. Additional committee members are welcome.

Testimonies & Concerns Update- Paige Tilghman

(See detailed minutes from the recent T&C meeting circulated in the announcements.)

Quaker Voice is a new effort to give Quakers throughout the state a unified voice from a Quaker perspective about legislative topics of interest. Whitley Gray and Dona Sorce represent Third Haven. Testimonies and Concerns will help them establish and communicate topics of interest to Third Haven Friends Meeting and individual members.

Nominating Committee Update- Connie Crow

Thank you clerks for responses to email. Members and attenders are asked to think about their leadings for service to the meeting either individually or by committee.

Given this unusual time we might need to reevaluate our purposes. See p. 61 of Faith and Practice about Nominating Committee facilitating training to develop skills and accomplish missions.

Comments: Individuals need to be committed. Committees need to evaluate how well they are meeting their mandates. Faith and Practice provides guidelines for committee responsibilities. Please reach out to each other to draw people into these activities and share that with the nominating committee members: Connie Crow, Jonathan Slocum or Nancy Robbins.

World Quaker Day

Friends World Committee for Consultation (FWCC) invites every Quaker meeting and church from around the world to celebrate WORLD QUAKER DAY (WQD) on October 4, 2020. As the sun rises in each area of the world we want to remember that Quakers are worshipping through every time zone, celebrating our deep connections across cultures and Quaker traditions. We are united in love and can accompany each other on this special day that draws us together. As we worship, let us hold each other in prayer and thanksgiving, and let our hymns of praise resound across the world. The theme, 'What does it mean to be a Quaker today? Living into a Faithful Life in a Changing World' draws us to reflect upon our shared and differing experiences of being a Quaker around to world. It is a chance to celebrate our wonderful diversity of expression, whilst at the same time offering an important opportunity to learn about Friends' experiences of climate breakdown in other parts of the world. <http://www.worldquakerday.org/about-world-quaker-day/>

Timely Voter Registration Information

We have heard that many Friends, Quaker meetings and Quaker interest groups are active in supporting voter registration both among nearby populations and within their meetings. As a non-profit organization, the yearly meeting refrains from involvement in political activities to avoid partisanship. Friends have brought urgent concern to the clerks' group about the need to provide information and encouragement to vote in this election. After very considerable discernment and prayerful consideration, the Clerks group has reached unity on providing voter information to Friends across the yearly meeting.

Submission to Quaker Voice of Maryland

Quaker Voice of Maryland (an organization that seeks to help Quakers in Maryland have an effective voice in statewide policy decisions) is requesting input from Meetings, Committees, and Friends across Maryland to help guide their policy focuses for the 2021 General Assembly. At the 9th Month's Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business Third Haven passed two minutes (focused on Climate and Racial Justice) that align well with three possible focuses outlined by Quaker Voice of Maryland:

Climate Justice
Criminal Justice and Law Enforcement Reform
Immigration Rights and Civil Rights

Based on Third Haven's recently passed minutes I'd like to submit the above three focuses as our top priorities for the 2021 session of the Maryland General Assembly. Please feel free to email or call Whitley Gray (whitgilb@gmail.com 410.507.0542) by Oct 4th if you have questions, comments or concerns about THFM submitting the above topics as 2021 priorities to Quaker Voice of Maryland. Whitley Gray

Updates from the Upstairs of the Meetinghouse

Virtual Pizza Party! What fun we had at our First Day School's virtual pizza party this weekend! The festivities began with Susan Claggett delivering pizzas and fresh-baked chocolate chip cookies to the doorstep of Third Haven families, along with a couple Quaker goodies/games. Then, our crowd of half-dozen families plus several Meeting members enjoyed dinner together via Zoom, connecting for the first time in many weeks. Parents shared how their falls are going, with most school starting virtually and family life shaped around pandemic concerns. We talked about how we miss Third Haven, and chatted a bit about what we could do to sustain our community in the weeks ahead. As pizzas were polished off, Susan led a scavenger hunt - the kid showed off toys, favorite stuffed animals, and then shared their favorite ice cream flavors (maybe for a future ice cream social sometime?). We learned that Cleo and Emilia have developed a mega hopscotch game the takes up a whole block - take a look downtown on their block if you want a hop. And the evening was capped of with Brody losing a baby tooth! Special thanks to Amy, Susan, Dona, Molly and John for preparing and joining in the fun, and for Larissa for setting up the technology.

Waiting for Pizza....

Susan delivers!

Digging in...

Scavenger hunt...toys and pets..oh my!

So glad to see Moms, Dads and our precious children.

What's next? Come join us on Sunday, October 11, at 10:15 for a story circle about the idea of "being present." Susan will lead the sharing during this virtual First Day School, with Amy running the technical bits. Hope to "see" you there!
