Readers Report Friends, My life the past month is a blur that I am working to catch up with this week. ...Many thanks .As always ...the glimpse into the life of your meeting is a treasure. Your scriptural quote spoke straight to my heart this time. (Feb-05 Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.- Matthew 5.8). My husband died suddenly a month ago. He was 55, not a Friend, but the kindest gentlest soul I ever knew. Brett was unchurched but rich in spirit, so effortlessly spiritual, he had no idea that was the pure heart he brought to the world. We met 36 years ago today. Give.. an extra big hug today. You never know what is beyond this blessed moment.

Peace, love and light,

Claudia Wilson in Fort Worth TX

Corrections The preliminary budget will not be presented April 10.as previously reported . The committee does not plan to present a preliminary budget until May 8 with a final budget until June 12. Winslow Womack - Clerk Budget and Finance

Condolences Third Haven member, Jane Caldwell died Friday evening March 18, 2005 at Medford Leas, NJ. Her son, Sam, and his family were with her and report that she was comfortable, and just slipped away. The family will notify our meeting when they plan to hold a memorial service for her. Marsie Hawkinson- Clerk

Jane Kennedy Caldwell formerly of Swarthmore, Pa., and Easton Md, died peacefully. Born in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, to Norman Charles Ballheim and Norma Peddycoart Ballheim, both musicians. Mr. Ballheim (who died when Jane was just two years old) was the child of Ida Palmer Ballheim, sister of Austin Norman Palmer, originator of the Palmer Method of penmanship. Jane's mother subsequently married Floyd E. Kennedy of Detroit, Mich. After living in Omaha, Neb., Detroit, Mich., and Des Moines, Iowa, the family settled in Atlantic City, N.J. Jane attended Atlantic City High School, and graduated from St. Leonard's School in Ventnor.

After graduation, she married Dr. Richard Conrad Bew, an Atlantic City physician. They had two children, and resided first on Pacific Avenue, in Atlantic City, then on Brigantine Island, N.J. An avid golfer earlier on, she played at the Atlantic City and Seaview Country Clubs. She later married S. Dean Caldwell III, of Bethesda and Swarthmore, with whom she had two children.

Dean and Jane lived in Reno, Nev., for several years, and then moved to Swarthmore, until they retired. An avid reader, she volunteered at the Swarthmore Public Library, and then worked for 17 years as secretary to the Swarthmore Friends Meeting. In 1978, she retired with her husband to Easton, where they were well regarded in the Third Haven Friends Meeting, and enjoyed sailing their 29-foot Islander. They moved to Medford Leas in 1998. She is survived by two sons, Samuel D. Caldwell IV, of Media, Pa., and Richard Palmer Bew, of Cape May Point, N.J.; two daughters, Narrye Davis Caldwell, of Boulder Creek, Calif., and Jane Elizabeth Bew Jennings, of Monroe, N.J.; 14 grandchildren, and 18 great-grandchildren. A memorial service is planned for 11 a.m., Saturday, April 16, at Third Haven Friends Meeting in Easton. (J.Davis)

The First Day School of Third Haven would like to invite all children in FDS in the Quarter to worship and share First Day School with us on Sunday, April 17, 2005. Our worship begins promptly at 10am. Please indicate your interest to me at the email below. Afterwards we would like to enjoy games on our grounds and a potluck lunch. Susan Claggett susan@dmv.com combines a Jewish religious service with a ritual meal. About 120 members of all faiths participated in this fine ceremony which has become an annual event on the TACL calendar. Some of our hospitality crew were noted to be assisting in the kitchen.

Community seder at St. Marks Several members represented Third Haven at the Methodist Church in Easton on Monday, March 21. This traditional Passover service

Third Haven Friends Meeting Minutes of the 3rd Month 13th, 2005 Meeting for Business

Attending – Paige Bethke, Ken Carroll, Larny Claggett, Lorraine B Claggett, Susan Claggett, Tom Corl, John Hawkinson, Marsie Hawkinson, Bob Kemp, Elizabeth Koopman, Susan Leibman, Mike Mullen, Nancy Mullen, Jim Paul, Peggy Paul, Anne Rouse, Jim Rouse, Ann Williams, Winslow Womack, Ralph Young, Frank Zeigler and Joyce Zeigler. The meeting opened with a period of silent worship. Marsie Hawkinson, Clerk of the Meeting, clerked the meeting for business.

3rd Query – Jim Paul read the 3rd Query on Spiritual Nurture, Ministry and Religious Education. A Friend noted her deep appreciation of the queries.

Minutes of the 2nd month 13th meeting for business – When the Clerk requested approval of the minutes, 2 Friends indicated that they felt that the “explanatory note”, read at the 1st month meeting for business, should have been included in the 2nd month minutes, in connection with the approval of the proposed minute on the celebration of same gender unions. There followed a discussion of the approved minute, the explanatory note and the process of approval at the 2nd month meeting for business. After some discussion the Meeting agreed that the explanatory note should be inserted in the 2nd month 13th minutes, in connection with the approval of the minute on the celebration of same gender unions. The explanatory note stated:

This does not put the union under the “care of the meeting,” but it allows those who wish to do so, to make this commitment to our fellow Friends. Participation would be voluntary, and no one would be forced to agree to something against their belief.

A Friend asked that the term “resignation” used in the 2nd month minutes be changed in connection with the departure of an attender. With these changes the Meeting APPROVED the minutes of the 2nd month 13th meeting for business.

Clerk’s correspondence and announcements – Clerk Marsie Hawkinson reported that the Meeting had held a memorial meeting for worship for Marilla McCarthy who died on 2nd month 19th, 2005. The meeting was well attended, by Marilla’s daughters and their families, her friends from the community and Third Haven Friends. Friends noted this had been a wonderful celebration of Marilla McCarthy’s life and contributions to Third Haven Friends Meeting.

The Friends General Conference (FGC) Gathering will be in Blacksburg, Virginia, 7th month 2nd-9th. The Meeting received a thank you note from the Friends General Conference development committee for the hospitality of Third Haven Friends. The Philadelphia Yearly Meeting (PYM) Annual Sessions will be at Arch Street Meetinghouse 3rd month 31st-4th month 2nd. Helpers are needed as ushers and dining room servers. Marsie Hawkinson and Lorraine B Claggett plan to attend these Annual Sessions; others may also attend. Arlene Kelly and Thom Jeavons attended the rededication of the Ramallah Friends Meeting on the West Bank of Palestine, which received $50,000 from Philadelphia Yearly Meeting in 2002 to rebuild.

Treasurer’s report – Winslow Womack reported for the Treasurer and presented the financial report for Third Haven through 2nd month. The income for 2nd month was $791; the expenses $2,062, for a negative net for the month of $1271. The total income for the 7th-1st month period was $39,783; the total expense was $27,283; with the net income of $3,500 in the fiscal year to date. The total current assets are $60,402, with total current liabilities of $5,793 the Meeting has $54,609 net funds available. Winslow noted that the Meeting is 2/3 of the way through the year and asked Friends to make financial contributions to achieve the proposed budget.

Testimonies and Concerns – Stony Run Friends Meeting had asked Third Haven to support a letter to the Governor requesting that Native Americans in Maryland prisons be allowed to be allowed to hold their religious practices. Clerk Marsie Hawkinson had provided a copy of the proposed letter at the last and then again at this meeting for business. Elizabeth Koopman of Chester River Friends Meeting discussed the issue with Third Haven Friends. After some discussion, the Meeting APPROVED a minute of support for the letter to Governor Ehrlich which reads as follows:

Third Haven Monthly Meeting of Friends, Easton, Maryland, at its meeting for business of March 13, 2005, approved a minute supporting the request made by Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends, Stony Run for a meeting with Governor Robert L. Ehrlich, Jr., or his appropriate designee, to discuss the issue of religious freedom for incarcerated Native American devotees in Maryland prisons.

Lorraine B Claggett, Clerk of the Testimonies and Concern Committee, invited Friends to join a peace march beginning at the courthouse at noon on 3rd month 19th.

Hospitality – Ann Williams, Clerk, on behalf of the Committee and Co-Clerk, John Hawkinson, presented the Hospitality Committee Annual Report: “We have been blessed with many hospitality offerings throughout the year. Many among you have contributed to the spontaneous unstructured gatherings in the Common Room following worship. We are running slightly ahead of our budget, but try to maintain adequate supplies of essentials. We sincerely thank all friends who have provided both food and generous effort on first days. Please don’t be shy about signing up since this ministry brings us together in joy and good fellowship. We encourage you to sign up as a team in order to lighten the task and to get better acquainted. We project similar activities and a similar budget for the next year.” The Meeting APPROVED the report with thanks to Ann, John and the Hospitality Committee for all of their good work for Third Haven Friends Meeting. In response to a question about the inventory of Third Haven note cards, Paige Bethke indicated that Overseers maintains a supply.

Common Room – Peggy Paul, the Clerk of the Common Room Committee, asked the Meeting to approve the use of the Common Room by the local La Leche League, in which Susan Leibman is an active member. When Susan cannot be present a member of Chester River Friends Meeting will attend. There followed some discussion. The Meeting APPROVED the use of the Common Room by La Leche League for a year, and encouraged the Committee to feel authorized to make such decisions. As a result of this discussion, Peggy Paul and the Committee will check the existing policies and guidance for the use of the Common Room (on the Meeting website) to determine if these need to be modified and updated.

Worship and Ministry Committee – The discussion on simplicity, scheduled for 3rd month 27th, will be rescheduled so as not to conflict with the First Day School Easter egg hunt for the children.

Overseers – Paige Bethke announced that 3rd month 13th is Leonard Baynham’s 93rd birthday as well as her own. Mary Cotton and Lorraine B. Claggett celebrated their birthdays on 2nd month 13th, also the day of a meeting for business. Paige indicated that Overseers is developing a Meeting birthday calendar. Overseers is working with families having difficulties.

Communications – A Friend noted his appreciation of some of the valuable “nuggets” in the Newsletter. Nancy Mullen asked Friends to provide their views on the length, content, composition, internet links and distribution of the Newsletter. There followed some discussion. Friends are encouraged to provide comments to members of the Communications Committee.

First Day School – Susan Claggett reminded Friends that there will be an Easter egg hunt for First Day School children on 3rd month 27th. Friends were encouraged to bring some boiled eggs for the children to dye. The First Day School has invited children from Chester River Friends Meeting to join with them at Third Haven on 4th month 17th. In Connection with this report, Friends noted the extremely valuable and enduring contributions of Marilla McCarthy to the development and strength of the First Day School.

Library and Outreach – Anne Rouse, the Clerk of the Library and Outreach Committee, asked the Meeting to approve placing an information table in the right front corner of the brick meetinghouse. The Meeting APPROVED this proposal.

Nominating Committee – Dana Kester-McCabe has asked Third Haven to appoint a member to the Southern Quarterly Meeting planning committee, which meets 3 times per year. Quarterly meeting coordinators and planning committee members will meet at the Arch Street Meetinghouse in 4th month. Marsie Hawkinson asked for a volunteer; there being none she referred this to the Nominating Committee.

The meeting for business closed with a period of silent worship.

The next Third Haven meeting for business will be at the rise of meeting for worship 4th month 10th.

Respectfully submitted,

Tom Corl, Recording Clerk Third Haven Friends Meeting

Please remember that good stewardship includes financial support of your Monthly Meeting's budget, as well as your Yearly Meeting Annual Fund.

Your contributions sustain Quakerism. Where would you be without it?

Nancy and Sam
march for Peace

Nancy Mullen: Born in Rochester, NY, Nancy was raised in a non-church-going

Presbyterian family. She developed an interest in religion and spirituality quite early, but as an adult became disillusioned with the conservative track most mainline churches were following. She is happy to be a Quaker and to be raising her family in such an open-minded environment. A cancer survivor, Nancy has done her share of counseling and various kinds of support work. Her hobbies include painting -- both interiors and pictures and other decorative arts. She likes to write but rarely has time for it as her main occupation these days is as chauffeur, owie-kisser, and general finder of lost things. She is happy to be serving on the Hospitality, Communications, Testimonies and Concerns, and Overseers Committees. Right now she is looking at that list and saying "How did THAT all happen?" These days you can find her at the Country School in various volunteer capacities, at the Y five mornings a week, or at home thinking of places to take her family on "educational" trips!

Book Review Of interest in the Testimonies and Concerns reference file on the library shelf is Plan B. Rescuing a Planet under Stress and a Civilization in Trouble by Lester R. Brown. This book follows a previous book by Brown, entitled Eco-Economy: Building an Economy for the Earth, which argues that the environment is not part of the economy, as many believe, but instead, the economy is part of the environment. Plan B asserts that the economy must be restructured at wartime speed because whereas we previously lived on the interest generated by earth's natural capital assets, we are now spending those assets themselves. He describes it as an environmental bubble economy inflated by overconsumption of natural assets that is in need of immediate deflation before it bursts. Limited in scope and a quick read, the book concentrates on the basic problem of the future need for food and the responses required to meet the need. Water, soil, climate change, population pressure all get their hearing along with social differences in a divided world. It is an important view of the future for a populace preoccupied with present problems. In offering concrete solutions and specific steps, Brown gives the lay reader hope for progress in a place where the landscape otherwise might seem too vast and bleak for help. By Lorraine Claggett
